The occupants of Suite 10-A are now believed to be identical to [redacted] New York, and the subject, CARMINE GALANTE. Following the departure of these individuals from Suite 10-A on April 3, 1958, Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation obtained several latent fingerprint lifts from personal objects in this room, which were submitted to the FBI Laboratory. The FBI Laboratory advised on May 1, 1958, that six of these latent fingerprints were classifiable and compared with the known fingerprints of GALANTE, [redacted] and [redacted]. They reported that five of these latent fingerprints were identical with the fingerprints of CARMINE GALANTE.

Unsub then inquired if little [redacted] came around and if [redacted] talked to little [redacted] he advised further that [redacted] had to much to do and that he should take [redacted] to [redacted] and explain what is to be done and let [redacted] contact [redacted] once a week.

In a later telephone conversation, unsub stated, "Hello doll. Did you make that delivery over in Newark with [redacted] today? That's good. [redacted] is not her now. [redacted] called the dressmaker. She needs encouragement since she has a phony complex and she wants everybody to look at her. She's not as young as she used to be, but she must have been pretty when she was young. Everybody wants to take her out to the movies and dinner. How is [redacted] Everything's O.K. I'll see you when you come uptown tomorrow. I'm glad you went over there and they received you well, because I know what I'm doing. Did [redacted] call yesterday? Yes, you can take [redacted] up with you. He's big enough, and give [redacted] my regards."

Later, one of the occupants was heard to say that [redacted] called four or five times and will call back. Unsub then said, "Yes, I just received her call."

He stated [redacted] left for Miami last night and that he was going to see you after the primary and he has a plan. - "What do you mean he doesn't want you to go to the whip? Well this guy better be good if you say he's got the closest thing to the whip." The speaker then discussed his efforts to obtain reservations on a plane for the following day and was apparently having difficulty in obtaining tickets and reservations and stated that if that boy wants any more business that he better come through. He then stated that [redacted] was there and inquired about [redacted]. He stated that [redacted] had said he had seen the wire and he would tell him to bring the paper.

The unsub advised the caller that [redacted] was right and that he could not hold two permanent registrations as a jobber to a manufacturer. He advised the caller to consult with [redacted] and let [redacted] know. He then stated that [redacted] or [redacted] the floor girl, could help sort the dresses and that he would contact [redacted] about helping in the sorting although [redacted] has to close up the bar. He then stated that the money he gave to get into that place of business had been given to the dead man's people. He then instructed the caller to stop where [redacted] goes at 39th St. and Eighth Ave., in the little ticket office and to call back tomorrow about the same time.

Unsub then received another long distance phone call from a person referred to as [redacted] and they discussed their prior conversations concerning [redacted] and the fact that he had been laid off. Unsub told [redacted] that he would close that place up tight and ruin those guys if they ever tried to drop [redacted] from the room again. The room was described as a small outfit and that the top bet that can be placed was $44.00. It was agreed that [redacted] would return to work on Tuesday. [redacted] then entered the room and talked with [redacted] and advised he was not blaming him, but he knew that [redacted] and [redacted] had given him the run around. [redacted] then said he was going to take the children up with him for a week, that he resigned, and that he was a sick man. [redacted] then asked [redacted] how [redacted] was and mentioned how was the real estate trouble. [redacted] then told [redacted] that he had seen his Mrs. but that he didn't open up. He then stated that JOHNNY wanted to move to Schnectady and open a place. [redacted] then stated that he knew [redacted] had told him to go back, but they made up the sheet for the $75.00 and they made a new BR on Sunday. [redacted] then stated when [redacted] comes back from Florida - - unsub grabs the phone and angrily stated, "How come this conversation long distance? You guys live together Don't you talk when you are together?" Unsub then stated that he had heard from [redacted] and that he knew about the Bonfire stuff. He stated "Yes, I have a car and a big house, but he tells me he has a $50,000 mortgage past due in February. After this call was completed, the unsub directed [redacted] to take an unidentified female downstairs and put her in a cab. On [redacted] return, he questioned him to see if he saw anybody when placing this female in the cab, to which [redacted] replied, "No." The occupants in the room then engaged in a general conversation concerning their departure from the Alrae Hotel and stated that they should be careful and not be followed when departing.

[redacted] shortly after this, the occupants of the room departed and subsequently checked out of the hotel.
